

MONTHLY HIGHLIGHTS

2025

A Message from ANZCHAM Board Director and New Zealand's Trade Commissioner to the Philippines and Indonesia, Cecilia Shand

As we close in for the year I was lucky enough to host November's Monthly Members Meeting, an insightful conversation between our own Executive Director Kimmi Siu Dewar and Vice President for Retail Development at Rockwell Land Tin Coqueiro on how Sales and Marketing marry up in the modern world to fuel growth. Definitely food for thought as we head into the silly season and plan for next year!

I appreciated the insight that, regardless of whether it's B2C or B2B, finding and connecting with your community is essential for unlocking growth. The comparison between the business world and our own chamber—our ecosystem and community, which we as board members strive to understand and support—was especially meaningful.

Also, before November's Monthly Members Meeting, we welcomed our newest members at a special night with the Board. With an absolute landslide of new members, including 3 new Key Partners and 20 new Corporate Partners from a wide range of industries, from aviation to government, hospitality to healthcare, it was a joy to meet new friends and reconnect with familiar faces, sharing stories and forging new connections.

Last night, 2 December, we hosted the spectacular ANZCHAM's Got Talent, which I'm sure will generate its own newsletter of stories! What a way to kick off the run up to Christmas and a well-deserved break.

Warm Regards,

Cecilia Shand

Director, ANZCham

New Zealand's Trade Commissioner to Philippines and Indonesia, NZTE

Over the past months, ANZCHAM's Monthly Members' Meetings have taken on a new energy; reshaped, renewed, and re-energized to create more meaningful spaces for connection, learning, and collaboration.

November's final MMM of the year was no different, co-presented by Aristocrat Gaming, it reflected the success of the past months: a packed evening of insights, connections, and lively engagement that left everyone inspired for what's ahead in 2026.

The energy carried through the evening as over 110 attendees filled the room, energized not only by the discussions on marketing and sales but also by our dynamic booth partners Australian Fine Foods and WinSolutions, alongside exhibitors Frankie General Store, Gourmet Direct, and Unitetris who kept the atmosphere buzzing all evening.

ANZCham welcomed back Cecilia Shand, New Zealand's Trade Commissioner to Indonesia and the Philippines and ANZCham Board Director, who hosted the evening.

Before the fireside chat kicked off, the community also celebrated three new key partners and 20 corporate members who joined in Q3 and Q4, marking another milestone in the growth and strength of the ANZCHAM community.

Led by Kimmi Siu Dewar, Regional Marketing Director, Asia, of Aristocrat Gaming and Executive Director of ANZCHAM, and Tin Coqueiro, VP for Retail Development of Rockwell Land, the fireside chat explored the evolving role of marketing in today's fast-paced landscape. They reflected on how marketing has shifted from a support function to a strategic partner at the top table, empowered by data, tools, and relationship building.

From welcoming new members and reconnecting with familiar faces, to insightful discussions and vibrant booths, the evening left attendees with fresh perspectives on turning marketing into measurable growth and building relationships that last far beyond a single campaign.

The November MMM capped off 2025 on an high note: engaging conversations, strengthened networks, and a renewed sense of momentum as we step into the opportunities of 2026.
